

TRO Exhibit 26

DECLARATION OF JERRY HUNT
Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746

1. My name is Jerry Hunt and I reside in Nashville, Tennessee. The following facts are known to me personally, and if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify thereto.

2. On April 17 of 2009, I filed a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission regarding telemarketing calls I had received from a company identified as MCS. A true and correct copy of my complaint is attached to this declaration as Exhibit A.

3. In March of 2009, I began receiving automated telemarketing calls. The number that showed up on my caller ID is included in my original complaint. I received calls from that number about three times a week for at least a month.

4. Normally when I answered the phone, a pre-recorded message played. Sometimes, however, the message didn't start and the line remained silent. When there was a message, it offered to "lower my interest rates." It didn't say the name of the company calling. It also gave an option to speak with a representative, or be placed on a do not call list.

5. The first several times I received calls, I pressed the option to be placed on the do not call list. I kept getting calls so I started to press the option to speak with a representative. The representatives I spoke to tried to give me the impression that they worked with my credit card company, and told me they were licensed with banks to lower my interest rates. When I pushed them for specific information about the company or their relationship with my credit card company, they refused to give it to me. They routinely hung up if I asked for the name of the company or complained about continuing to receive calls.

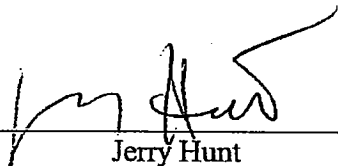

6. On one call, I finally talked to somebody who would give me some information. When I complained that the option to get placed on a do not call list didn't work, she said "it never works." She also told me that the name of the company is MCS. She was laughing when she gave me the name. I got the impression she was telling me something she wasn't supposed to.

7. I have been registered on the national do not call registry since 2007 and have never had any business relationship with MCS.

I swear or affirm under penalty of perjury that to the best of my knowledge and belief the foregoing is true and accurate.

Comments:	The caller ID is 1-407-000-9876. They called to "lower my interest rates". I spoke w/a woman who said they are licensed with hundreds of banks to lower interest rates. She would not give me the name of the company. I complained that they keep calling, even though I requested to be removed. Others have said they will ask for your account numbers to "verify" you. The woman said "account services" was the name of the company. "That's what's on my checks."- she said.
